

INDIEFLIX
PRESENTS

THE UPSTANDERS

TheUpstanders.com

A 55-MINUTE DOCUMENTARY ON
HOW TO END CYBER-BULLYING

THE UPSTANDERS examines cyber-bullying from the perspectives of the bully, the victim, and the onlooker

Learn practical tips on how to become an Upstander, not a bystander

FREE

Screenings to Take Place Around Vermont on May 4-5

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 2022

12:00 NOON: HCRS

- Film to be followed by a panel discussion facilitated HCRS and Springfield School staff
- Contact Mary at mmoeyken@hcrs.org to register

6:00 PM: United Counseling Service

- Film to be followed by a facilitated discussion with Jason Fleming, UCS Director of Children, Youth, & Family Services, with direct support & clinical staff
- To register, contact dmalinowski@ucsvt.org or call 802-442-5491

6:00 PM: Howard Center

- Film to be followed by a panel discussion
- To register, contact developmentteam@howardcenter.org

7:00 PM: Counseling Service of Addison County

- Film to be followed by panel discussion
- To register, go to: www.csac-vt.org

THURSDAY, MAY 5, 2022

5:00 PM: Lamoille County Mental Health Services

- Film to be followed by a panel discussion
- To register, contact luciana.soares@lamaille.org

FOR RESIDENTS OF FRANKLIN & GRAND ISLE COUNTIES

- Register with Northwestern Counseling & Support Services to view the film online on May 4 or 5
- Contact Whitney.Bates@ncssinc.org or call 802-393-6564

This film is being sponsored by the Vermont Department of Mental Health under PIPBHC (CHILD) grant 5H79SM080234-04 from SAMHSA